DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a large assymetrical frame house of two and one half stories with a roof of various elevations. On the front facade are four bays, plus a gabled wing at right angles to this, with a two story bay window on the front. The gable of the wing is ornamented with imbricated shingle, and this is repeated just below the gable, and between the first and second story windows. Extending across the portion of the front, which is opposite this wing, is a two story porch supported by rectangular columns. The paneled door has a transom and sidelights with ornately patterned colored glass. The upper half of each window is ornamented with a border of stained glass. On the front of the house is a gable with imbricated shingle, opposite a dormer with a double window.

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Built sometime in the last quarter of the 19th century this was one of the earlier houses on Locust Street, and the original owner had a lumberyard in the rear. Once an ornate Queen Anne style home, much of the "gingerbread" has been removed, although some of the detail and a hint of the former elegance remains.
